Waiver of Rule 6

“All persons or bodies corporate present, in person or by representative, who express the desire to become members and who are proposed and seconded by existing members in writing, shall (subject to the provisions of rule 8) be eligible for Ordinary or Associate membership of the club.”

The following may waive the Proposer and Secunder Requirements for New Members of the OBC of Northland.

On 12th March, 2008 the Executive Committee passed a resolution permitting the acceptance of new members who could not comply with the requirements of Rule 6 providing that such members voluntarily agree to accept a probationary membership in lieu of such requirement. The conditions of this are stipulated as follows:-

The “probationary membership is to last for 12 months from the date of the new member attending the New Membership Meeting, notwithstanding that this period may be shortened or extended if, in the opinion of a majority of the executive committee, conditions warrant such a change.

You accept that your membership is probationary only and you cannot become a full ordinary member (with full voting rights) until you have successfully completed your probationary period.

You accept that if you commit any actions that wilfully transgress either the Rules of the Club, or the conditions outlined in the Members Handbook, this may cause The Executive Committee, by a majority vote, to extend the probationary period or to terminate your membership.

If the Executive Committee does extend the probationary period or terminate your membership the member may request a Reconsideration of the penalty by writing to the Secretary, setting out their case as to why the decision should be reviewed, and agreeing to appear in person before the Executive Committee if they so request it.

The member agrees that Rule 23 c) is waived. (There will be no right for the member to demand a full Special General Meeting).

No monies paid by the member to achieve membership will be refunded.

Declaration

I /We accept the conditions of the Probationary Membership Period in its entirety.
